THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

[The Office of Naval Intelligence furnished the following information (11th Naval District 64-59) to CIA for USIB dissemination [REDACTED] 25X1

1. Berth. [REDACTED] vessel berthed [REDACTED] in Marshal Pilsudski Basin at a concrete wharf [REDACTED] 25X1
[REDACTED] It was estimated that five vessels 500 feet in over-all length could berth here.
2. Security. Two armed guards were on the wharf during entire stay; however, security measures in general were very lax. 25X1
3. Naval Activity. Three destroyers were observed in port. [REDACTED] 25X1

[REDACTED] These ships were being painted and possibly being repaired. A third destroyer was berthed outside of Military Basin No 1. [REDACTED] This ship appeared to be of a newer construction than the aforementioned in that the stern configuration was different and the general condition of the ship suggested more recent construction. 25X1

Comment: [REDACTED] the visibility in the port was very poor
